Authors of an Amazon #1 New Release

Pappas & Morin, PHD.

Trump Derangement Syndrome has taken over society, spreading throughout America, tearing apart the mental stability of those inflicted and destroying cities in its wake. Pappas & Morin expose the root causes — liberal ideology, helicopter parenting, millennial mentality, and poor moral development — in those that perpetuate the syndrome, including the democrat leftwing media, entertainment industries, biased university professors, and dedicated Marxists who use the tools of PC cancel culture, wokeism, and gaslighting that impact America and beyond. They also tap into the characteristics of envy, narcissism, and the rise of misandry (the contempt for men) and how this has served to propagate TDS. The pendulum of destructive TDS symptomology has swung so far to the left, that it has led to a polarization of political ideals. Pappas & Morin truly believe that if TDS is left unchecked without a cure will change the face of America forever.
