The RCIRC is honored to present:
Community Advocate of the Year

Lynn Barletta

Lynn Barletta is the founding director of Florida Faith Alliance. In 2024, Barletta received Community Advocate award from the Florida Council on Human Trafficking. Barletta holds a Master of Fine Arts with paintings presented all over the world. In 2010 Barletta launched, Visionary School of Arts. Her students have won over 600 awards for youth leadership and fine arts. In 2015, Barletta set out with eight certified counseling therapists to work with children at the juvenile justice facility, Martin Girls Academy. Barletta developed with her team Power of Art Curriculum for Abused and Trafficked Survivors. 30 girls suffered severe disorders from being trafficked. All 30 showed improvement and continued mentoring. Now, 435 students go through the program annually.
