The RCIRC is honored to present:
Florida State Senator

Erin Grall

FL District 29 Senator, Erin Grall

Erin Grall is Florida's District 29 Senator representing Indian River, Glades, Highlands, Okeechobee and St. Lucie counties. The conservative legislator began her Tallahassee career serving in the Florida House from 2016-2022. One day, Director of Parental Rights Florida, Patti Sullivan, had presented it to Grall in a single-paragraph proposal. Grall took that proposal and wrote a 12-page bill known as the Parents Bill of Rights. It was signed into law by Governor Ron DeSantis in 2021. Now a state senator, Grall said at the time to Parental Rights Florida, "The magnitude of having a new chapter of law that's really dedicated to families is intense. It's big."

Grall has always championed the cause of the unborn as well being the author of 6 week "Heartbeat Bill." In the Senate, Grall continues to serve as a leading constitutional conservative on behalf of her constituents. Locally, she is practicing attorney at the Grall Law Group founded by her father, Bernie Grall. She has served as a Director for Marine Bank & Trust since 2016.
